DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lu et al. (Pat. No. 5,951,593).

Lu et al. disclose a method of pacing the heart at an overdrive pacing rate specified by an overdrive pacing response function (see the text abridging cols. 5 and 6 where the overdrive pacing response function can be defined as $f(AR) = AR + D1$, where AR equals the atrial rate and D1 is a constant in the range of 5-10 ppm), determining whether the degree of overdrive pacing achieved using the overdrive pacing response function falls below a threshold (see col. 6, lines 6-9), and adjusting the overdrive pacing response function if the degree of overdrive pacing falls below the threshold (see col. 6, lines 15-21), and using the adjusted overdrive pacing response function for further overdrive pacing (note Fig. 6 and the program loop involving instructions 208, 212, 214, 218 and 219). To further elaborate, the examiner considers the overdrive pacing function to be adjusted in step 219 where the response curve is shifted upwards by a value of D2 to more aggressively wrest control.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-18 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record does not appear to teach the step of adjusting the shape, per se, of the overdrive pacing response function after determining whether the degree of overdrive pacing achieved using the overdrive pacing response function falls below a threshold (claim 1). Lu et al., for example, shifts the curve upwards or downwards depending on conditions such as shown in applicants' prior art Fig. 1, but does not change the shape such as shown in applicants' Fig. 7. Similar comments apply to apparatus claims 11 and 17.

Art Unit: 3762

Conclusion

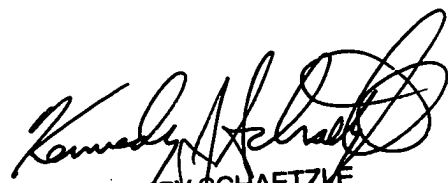

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kennedy Schaetzle whose telephone number is 703 308-2211. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9:30-6:00.
